Weinberg, Wheeler, Hudgins, Gunn & Dial's ("WWHGD") Miami office opened in 2002 and has since served as a major center for various litigation in the state of Florida as well as across the country. The Miami office's attorneys have counseled clients in matters involving construction disputes, personal injury claims, insurance coverage opinions, transportation litigation and multiple other legal issues.

The dedication, emphasis on client service and favorable results helps the Miami office build long-term relationships with its clients. The attorneys have represented clients in almost every district across the state and are the leaders in multi-injury litigation matters in Florida. Two residents in the Firm's Miami office are members of the elite American Board of Trial Advocates.

Representative Cases

- Received a defense verdict in a wrongful death case brought by the estate of a heavy equipment operator who was crushed to death when the paving machine he was operating rolled down an embankment. The decedent left a wife and seven children. Plaintiff's last demand during trial was $17 million.
- Represented a transportation company and driver after a tragic collision involving a tractor-trailer, car and school bus, resulting in the deaths of several minors. The case involved more than 15 separate personal injury suits.
- Defended and obtained a favorable settlement on behalf of a Palm Beach County company and employee involved in a motor vehicle accident in which the plaintiff suffered permanent brain damage.
- Represented a large hotel in Broward County in a parasailing accident which resulted in one death and serious permanent injuries to another due to a broken tow line. The high-profile case was settled.

Continued

- Obtained verdict on behalf of a sub-contractor in claim for construction fees after a 5 day trial in Jacksonville. Jury awarded full amount of claimed damages, resulting in complete recovery, including attorneys fees and costs. Also prevailed on counterclaim by the defense for alleged project abandonment.
- Obtained a defense verdict in a medical malpractice trial where the plaintiff claimed the neonatologist did not treat micro-seizures in a newborn, allegedly resulting in brain damage. The economic damage claim exceeded $11 million.
- Represented a large hotel company in an alleged carbon monoxide poisoning which killed one hotel guest and injured seven others in Key West. The cases were confidentially settled.
