

Florida Trend Names Alex Laster as “Up & Coming” Legal Elite

Florida Trend Magazine

July 2006

The July 2006 edition of Florida Trend magazine named WWHGD associate Alex Laster to its annual list of the state’s Legal Elite in the “Up & Coming Attorneys” category. Florida attorneys are asked to nominate their peers with the resulting list representing the top 1.8 percent of the state’s legal community. Attorneys are asked to name members of the bar who they hold in the highest regard as professionals, based on personal experience. Each voter was asked to list one name for the best “Up & Coming Attorney.” Mr. Laster, who is resident in firm’s Miami office, was chosen by his peers as a top attorney among those practicing less than 10 years.
