

Community Commitment

Attorneys Give Back

Weinberg, Wheeler, Hudgins, Gunn & Dial supports charitable causes with legal services, monetary contributions and in-kind support. In addition to support, the Firm's attorneys also serve on the Boards of various community and charitable organizations.

The Firm's Atlanta attorneys participate in Georgia's Truancy Intervention Project by providing legal representation and assistance to metro Atlanta school children with truancy and family problems.

Weinberg, Wheeler, Hudgins, Gunn & Dial annually helps build Habitat for Humanity houses during the annual "Buildable Hours" project.

Weinberg, Wheeler, Hudgins, Gunn & Dial has supported numerous charities which give aid to victims of some of the world's largest natural disasters. The Firm matched employee contributions for the Tsunami Relief and Hurricane Katrina, and raised over $11,000 for CARE and the Red Cross for those affected by the earthquake in Haiti.

The Firm's attorneys annually manage and direct the Georgia High School Mock Trial competition.

Weinberg, Wheeler, Hudgins, Gunn & Dial is involved in the management and fundraising for the Greater Atlanta chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. Through this involvement, the Firm helps select and award annual scholarships to 50 high school scholar athletes who have excelled in academic, athletic and community achievements.
